HACAWA, '93 John Austin, Editor

THIS BOOK LARGELY REPRESENTS WHO WE ARE AND WILL SERVE AS A REMINDER FOR YEARS TO COME.

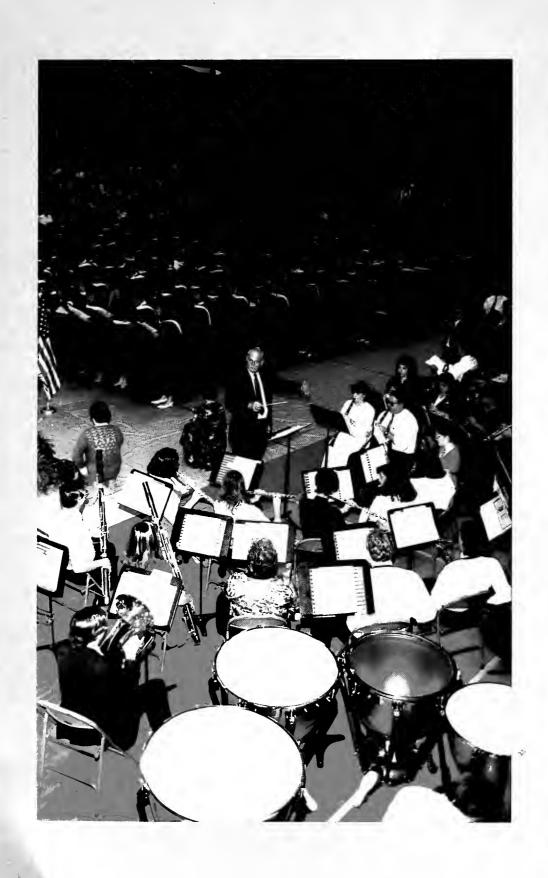

"You shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." This motto of our Fair Star explains the quest for wisdom and its benefits.

Many different people come to Lenoir-Rhyne for many different reasons, but the one thing we share is the desire for true wisdom. This wisdom does not necessarily mean intelligence, but rather the reasoning capabilities to make decisions for ourselves. These capabilities, in turn, make us true sovereigns seeking to live our lives freely.

Our years at L-R, packed with classes, friends, meetings and much, much more, combine to help us mature. On that way to maturity we learn the truth about how things really are in this world. With this new knowledge we ask ourselves new questions, and we are faced with decisions which have to be made.

This 85th volume of the HACAWA is all about what we did and what we saw during this school year. Included in these pages is only a fraction of things we learned, but this book largely represents who we are and will serve as a reminder for years to come.

HOMECOMING: "OUR BIG DAY

On March 13-14, 1992, Lenoir-Rhyne College was host to the Southern Regional Conference for the American Conference for Irish Studies. Highlighting the conference was an appearance by Seamus Heaney, celebrated Irish poet, scholar and Nobel Award nominee (right).

Coordinated by associate professor of English Dr. Rand Brandes (below), the conference was the first of its magnitude ever held at Lenoir-Rhyne. Brandes also serves as president of the 12-state Southern region, which was organized only three years ago.

Heaney rarely speaks in the South and nearly never in a small setting such as Lenoir-Rhyne. But Brandes quickly pointed out, "this is the area where the Scotch and Irish who didn't stay in Boston and New England settled, in the Appalachian region."

Brandes' relationship with Heaney over the years probably can best be credited with coordinating the event on the Lenoir-Rhyne campus. About ten years ago, as a graduate student at Emory University, Brandes crossed paths with is working on. Heaney, bribing the Irish poet and Harvard University professor with a pig in exchange for his appearance at the university!

"I was in charge of the graduate reading series," Brandes recalls. "I wrote him at Harvard and ex- on a small campus where there's plained to him I couldn't pay him a lot of scholarship activity going much to come, but I could cook him the pig."

Heaney wrote Brandes back and said the pig would be fine, so there they met. They kept in touch over the years, affording Brandes the opportunity to interview the acclaimed poet for an article and even to peruse his manuscripts in the attic of his Dublin home for a book Brandes

Dr. Robert Spuller, vice presiden and dean of academic affairs, said the conference marked a great time in Lenoir-Rhyne's growth. " think it's good for people in the region to have the opportunity to be on," Spuller said.

Heaney, the author of numerous collections of Irish poetry, holds the Oxford Chair of Poetry and teaches creative writing at Harvard University. His poetry has been compared with works by Wordsworth, Shelley, and T.S. Eliot. Heaney shared his poetry at a reading in the Belk Centrum on March 13.

GREEKS HONOR ACHIEVEMENT, EXCELLENCE

The 26th annual Greek Awards Ceremony, sponsored by the Interfraternity Senate and the Panhellenic Council, was held on April 27, 1992, in the Belk Centrum.

The ceremony recognized the achievement of members of the college's four social sororities and four social fraternities. Founded in 1967, the master of ceremonies for the evening was the awards' founder, Dr. Ellis Boatmon, professor of history at Lenoir-Rhyne since 1966.

Greetings were brought by Senate president Seth Beale and Council president Minette Bushong. The invocation was offered by Dr. Michael McDaniel, professor of religion at LR.

The Leadership Gavel Awards to outstanding freshmen went to Amy Holbrook and Ed Agnoli, Jr. Outstanding pledge awards were received by Laura Ingenito and Chris Bowen,

The Clayton Greek Award in Scholarship, named for retired Classics professor Dr. Laura Clayton, was given to Julie Jorgensen. The Carelli Award in athletics went to Richard Jones. Other athletic awards were given to numerous student-athletes.

Sophomore Greeks of the Year were Dietra Dula and John Austin, while the Junior Greek Awards went to Edith Wells and Chris Webb. Wesley Hawn was named the recipient of the McDaniel Citizenship Award.

The Jenkins Presidential Cup, named for Dr. Jane Jenkins of the college physical education department vas conferred on Matthew Krai president of Pi

Kappa Phi fraternity.

A large number of special awards were then conferred followed by four made-a-difference awards which went to Jim Grover, Angela Bollinger, Dina Ikenberry, and Jacqui Bickley.

The Excelsior Award for contribution to the arts/journalism went to Carrie Huff, and the Spirit Within Award for dedication to the Greek group was received by Kevin Smith. The Founders Award, for service to God and campus, went to Tim Gast.

The Moose Leadership Award, named for the late David A. Moose II, was conferred upon Richard Jones of Tau Kappa Epsilon, and Kira Zwygart, of Kappa Delta, was honored with the Adams Scholarship, named for the late David Michael Adams, fraternity man of the year in 1977.

The Boatmon Community Service Award, named for Dr. Ellis

Boatmon, was given to Rosy Riveria. The Senior Greek awards went to Seth Beale and Hannah Fye.

Tim Gast of Pi Kappa Phi was named Fraternity Man of the Year and Pamela Smith of Zeta Tau Alpha was named Sorority Woman of the Year.

Awards were presented by a host of campus and community people, including Mr and Mrs. Luther Adams of Southern Pines, N.C., President and Mrs. John Trainer, Jr., Dr Robert Spuller, and Mr. John Coffey, who also served as pianist for the evening.

GRADUATION 1992

Lenoir-Rhyne College held its 101st graduation exercises on Sunday, May 10. Baccalaureate services were at 10:00 a.m. in Monroe Auditorium, followed by Commencement in Shuford Gym, at 2:00 p.m.

Homilist for baccalaureate was the Rev. James A. Harbinson, pastor of Incarnation Lutheran Church in Charlotte, N.C. Pastor Harbinson received an honorary degree from Lenoir-Rhyne at graduation that afternoon.

Commencement began with the triumphant strains of "Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee" and were followed by an address by Dr. Charles Wells, Professor of Biology (right).

Honorary degrees were bestowed on Pastor Harbinson and Paul Manz, Professor of Church Music at Lutheran School of Theology, Chicago, Ill.

After the conferring of degrees, the service concluded with President John Trainer's charge to the class of 1992 and the response by class president Paul Bullock. With the singing of the Alma Mater and the benediction by Chaplain Donald Just, another graduating class moved out into history.

Before the first classes are held in the Fall, there is Prologue. This year, Devin Goodwin and Kira Zwygert (opposite top left) headed the freshman activity.

There are serious aspects to Prologue. There is a battery of tests to determine class placement, registration, and faculty advising. But there are also fun-activities, which help bond the freshman class together.

In a hot August sun, there were games (opposite page, top and bottom) which enabled the frosh to meet each other and to relax.

Many upperclassmen (above) help in the process of both fun and games as well as the more serious activities.

BENTON, RISSO HOLD FORUMS ON COLUMBUS

October, 1992, marked the 500th anniversary of the discovery of the New World by Christopher Columbus. Two separate forums were held at Lenoir-Rhyne College to observe the event.

Dr. Russell Benton, professor of history, presented a program, which included the use of slides to explain the adventure of Columbus, as well as to illustrate Dr. Benton's recent trip to Spain.

Dr. Humberto Risso, associate professor of Spanish, held a forum in which he outlined the four voyages of Columbus to the New World and the discovery of America.

PROGRAMS HELD ON ELECTION PROCESS

A five-part seminar on the election process highlighted the Election of 1992 at Lenoir-Rhyne. Sponsored by the Office of Development and the Department of Political Science, Dr. Lowell Ashman presided.

The October 12 topic was "Republicans and Democrats: Is There a Difference?" with Carl Hand, Rob Farzanegan, Herbert Hyde, and Alan Pugh serving as panelists.

The October 19 topic was "Campaign Issues: State and Federal" and presented Lyndon Helton, Bob Grissiths, Andy Wells, and Liz Hair as panelists.

The topic on October 26 was "Voter Behavior and Media Impact on the Election" with Barbara Thomas, L.A. Smith, Dr. Dan German, and Ed Williams as panelists.

November 2 the topic was "Importance of Voting and the Electoral College" with panelists Joe Mancos, Kevin McGee, William Gilkeson, and Jane Mandel.

The concluding topic, on November 9, was "Election Results and Assessment" with Bill Mauney, Mike Cozza, Dr. Paul Luebke and Betty Rash as panelists.

Stark White ladder-like shapes rise above and across the set of the Russian-American production of SHE IS WITHOUT LOVE AND DEATH. Ladders stand as both bridges and barriers for characters of the Edvard Radzinsky play presented by Moscow's Paladin Theatre and Lenoir-Rhyne College Playmakers from November 12 to 14 and 18-21, 1992.

For the cast and crew, the multi-layed structure was also a metaphor for rehearsals and recent experiences leading up to the jointly produced dual-language performance.

Outside the average six hours a day in rehearsal, the Russians compiled a view of life in Catawba County through daily experiences beyond the rehearsal halls. This agenda included visits with individuals, community organizations, churches, local businesses and area education systems.

Students took on most of the responsibility for hosting the group. In May, some eleven LR students will travel to Moscow as part of the exchange process and produce an American play for Russian audiences.

HOMECOMING, 1992

SENIORS CHOOSE BEST ALL-AROUND

Fred Reich

Julia Jorgensen

In the 85 years of HACAWA history the college yearbook has but one remaining superlative: best all-around. This year the senior class chose Fred Reich and Julia Jorgensen to that honor.

Fred Reich, a native of Gaithersburg, Maryland, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reich. He was born on July 27, 1971, in Queens, New York. Fred is a 1989 graduate of Seneca Valley High School, Germantown, Pa.

Fred Reich is a political science major, a member of Pi Kappa Phi fraternity, the Interfraternity Senate, and is active in intramurals. Fred served as treasurer of IFS and was president of Pi Kappa Phi.

Julia Jorgensen, a native of Blair, Nebraska, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jorgensen. She was born on December 31, 1970, in Blair. Julia is a 1989 graduate of Blair High School.

Julia Jorgensen is an English Education major, a member of Beartrackers, Lutheran Student Movement, and Sigma Kappa Sorority. Julia, who was a Lineberger Scholar, was president of Sigma Kappa. Julia was likewise named to WHO's WHO.

1992: CLINTON ELECTED PRESIDENT OF U.S.

Presidential politics, 1992 style, saw three major candidates seeking the presidency. President George Bush and his running mate, Dan Quayle (below) were the incumbents. Arkansas Governor Bill Clinton (opposite page) and Tennessee Sen. Al Gore were the Democratic candidates, and billionaire H. Ross Perot (right) was the Independent candidate.

Perot made his first billion when the computer company he founded began selling stock. His candidacy came to a stop when he abruptly quit the race in July. Then he got back into the race with about five weeks to go before Election Day. He chose Navy veteran James Stockdale as his running mate.

Clinton, a former Rhodes Scholar at Oxford and a graduate of Yale Law School, was governor of Arkansas when he decided to enter the national race. President Bush struck a defiant tone in his acceptance speech in Houston, promising an across-the-board tax cut to the new Congress if given a second term.

In the November vote, Clinton became only the second Democratic president since 1969, both houses of Congress were controlled by the Democrats, and a host of new faces (including many women) had been given seats in the legislative branch.

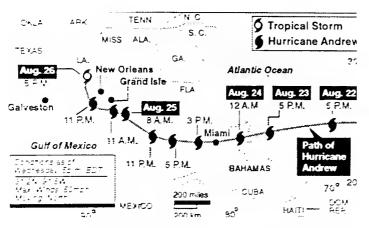

On the local scene Democrat Jim Hunt was chosen governor of North Carolina and Congressman Cass Ballinger, a Republican, was returned to the National House.

1992: HURRICANE ANDREW HITS; RIOTS IN LA

Hurricane Andrew struck southern Florida on August 24, 1992, with winds gusting to 164 mpg and a 12-foot tidal surge that flattened many homes, uprooted trees, flung boats into the streets and wrecked an entire Air Force base.

The hurricane's 54-hour U.S. rampage was the most expensive natural disaster ever in the country. Forty-five deaths were linked to the hurricane and damages were put at $20 billion in Florida and $1.5 billion in Louisiana.

When Rodney King was stopped by police on a Los Angeles freeway, police say he resisted them and was beaten. Someone videotaped the melee and released the tape to local stations. It received national attention, and four white officers were charged in the beating of King, who was black. But when a jury found them innocent of any wrongdoing, three days of rioting hit Los Angeles. When it ended, 52 people were dead, 2,383 were injured and damages were put at $785 million.

1992: YUGOSLAVIA FALLS APART; TRADE TREATY SIGNED

During 1992 Yugoslavia fell apart. Created in 1918, the new country was torn by demands for autonomy by Croatians who opposed Serbian domination (left).

Of the 24 million people living there, Serbs account for about 36 percent and the Croats for about 20 percent of the population. Other ethnic groups are also present.

War has now erupted among the various ethnic groups with inhabitants confronted daily by the shelling, sniper fire and death of war. The war has left thousands dead and has sent more than a million fleeing the country.

President Bush and the leaders of Canada and Mexico (below) participated in a ceremony in October, 1992, to spotlight an agreement designed to create the world's largest and richest free trade zone.

"This meeting marks a turning point in the history of our three countries," Bush said as Canadian Prime Minister Brian Mulroney and Mexican President Carlos de Gortari looked on.

The accord would create the world's largest free trade area by removing all trade barriers among the countries over 15 years.

1992: BLUE JAYS TAKE SERIES; U.S. SHINES, OLYMPICS

The Toronto Blue Jays (above) took baseball's championship outside the United States for the first time ever, beating the Atlanta Braves 4-3 in 11 innings in Game 6.

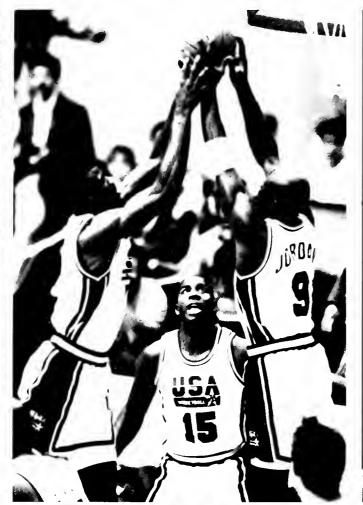

After surviving more ninth-inning magic from the Braves, the Blue Jays won it all when Dave Winfield's first World Series extra base hit scored two runs with two out.

The Olympics were transformed forever, when profession. Athletes were allowed to compete in the 1992. Immer Olympics in Barcelona, Spain.

1992: NEWSMAKERS FILL EVENTFUL YEAR

All throughout the year, names made the news. Leanza Cornett, a 21-year old from Jacksonville, Florida, was crowned Miss America; Itszak Rabin became Israel's prime minister; basketball great Larry Bird retired from the Boston Celtics after a 13-year career; and rapper Ice-T ignited a furor with his song "Cop Killer."

DEBATE, U.N. TEAMS REPRESENT LR

HARLAXTON — A RICH EXPERIENCE

Lenoir-Rhyne College takes part in the "Harlaxton Experience." Each fall numerous LR students journey to Grantham, England to study at the British campus of the University of Evansville.

Not only do LR students take part, but faculty members are also a part of the staff. Dr. Donna Dwiggins (left) was the 1992 staff representative.

WRITERS BRING TALENT TO CAMPUS

It was a full and eventful year with the Lenoir-Rhyne College Writers Reading Series, as numerous authors brought the richness of their works to Hickory.

Certainly one of the highlights of the year was the visit of Linda Lightsey Rice (right), a 1972 graduate of Lenoir-Rhyne and author of the best-selling novel SOUTHERN EXPOSURE.

Ms. Rice conducted a writing workshop on campus and shared the experiences of working on her second novel, which will include references to Lenoir-Rhyne and college life.

Ms. Rice noted, "I'm a Southern writer to the same extent I'm a female writer. It's inescapably part of my psyche."

PSI CHI BEGINS AT LR

Lenoir-Rhyne inducted 18 students and faculty into the charter chapter of Psi Chi, the national honor society in psychology.

Dr. Gordon Hodge, associate professor of psychology at the University of New Mexico and president of the Southwestern Psychological Association, was the installing officer for the ceremony.

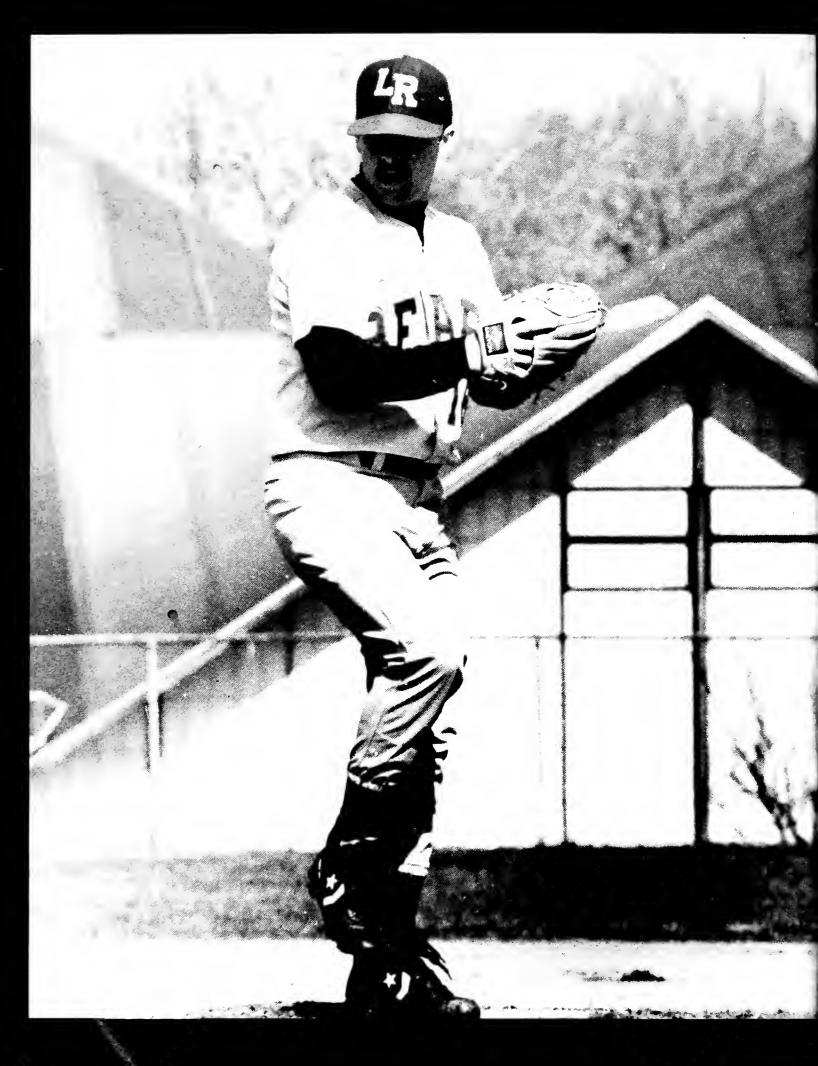

Psi Chi is open to all students majoring or minoring in psychology. Members must achieve at least a B average and be in the upper 35% of their class.

Charter members are Dr. David Ludwig, professor of psychology; Helen Just, part-time instructor in psychology; and Dr. Ruth Bookstaber-Smith, assistant professor of psychology and faculty adviser for the group.

Student members are seniors Jay Thompson, Jeff Farrar, Kim Ellison, Stephanie Sherrill, Angelique Smith, Scottie Sue Rector, Tami Matheny, David Young, Juniors are Ingrid Kizer, Valorie Robbins, Angela McRary, Kathy Grooms, David Grooms; and Sophomore Jennifer Capps.

An early project of Psi Chi was to train ten rats over a period of a month to react within a maze, then to race the rats in a public display in the Cromer Center.

Several Psi Chi members likewise presented papers in Atlanta and in Raleigh.

MEET A BEAR

In this feature we showcase some 20 Lenoir-Rhyne students, chosen for their activities and their hometowns.

LR Bears come from many different states and towns and in "Meet A Bear" we interview them, asking such questions as "why did you choose LR?" and "what do you like most about LR?"

We share their answers with you.

BEAR FAX

Four Lutheran ministers in church and educational work in western North Carolina conceived the idea of Lenoir-Rhyne College. The men - R.A. Yoder, J.D. Moser, W.P. Cline, and A.L. Crouse — shared the desire of other church leaders that the church establish an institution at Hickory to train teachers and ministers and offer a religiously-oriented education to all youth.

Their desire for a school did not take form until property became available through a Hickory businessman, Col. J.G. Hall. The property, a 56acre tract one mile north of the Hickory business district, was part of the estate of a Watauga County lawyer Capt. Walter Lenoir. Before he died in 1890, Capt. Lenoir surveyed the area and deeded it to Col. Hall with the request that it be used only as a campus for a church-sponsored college.

The school opened on September 1, 1891. The 149 students and eight teachers met for classes the first year in a modest two-floor frame structure. In the middle of the second year the college moved into its new brick main building which combined the academic, administrative, social and religious life of the campus under one roof until it was destroyed by fire in 1927.

For almost three decades Lenoir College served as a combination college, business school and academic under President R.A. Yoder (1891-1901), and President R.L. Fritz (1901-1920). Under President J.C. Peery (1920-1925) the academy division was squeezed out and became a college providing each student with a choice of varied major fields.

In 1923 the college changed its name. The name honored Daniel E. Rhyne, a Lincoln County industrialist who boosted the endowment and other assets of the institution with his frequent gifts. In recognition of his support, the college name assumed its present form - Lenoir-Rhyne College.

During the administration of H. Brent Schaeffer (1926-1934) regional accreditation was earned and Lenoir-Rhyne was admitted to membership in the Southern Association.

Dramatic growth in student enrollment marked the closing years of P.E. Monroe (1934-1949). Boosted by the influx of returning veterans from World War II, the enrollment jumped from 407 in 1945 to 843 two years later.

During the tenure of Voigt Cromer (1949-1967) enrollment continued to rise, the faculty increased to 96 members, the endowment grew to $1.8 million, and 13 major buildings were constructed.

During the administration of Raymond Bost (1967-1976), Lenoir-Rhyne initiated long-range plans to enrich the quality of its curriculum. Student personnel services expanded, the campus enlarged to 100 acres, and the enrollment grew to $3.9 million.

Albert Anderson (1976-1982) was the eighth president. The academic calendar was restructured and the core curriculum was added. New huildings were constructed, including a physical education center and a learning resources center.

Albert Allran served as president for 18 months prior to the selection of John Trainer in 1984. Under President Trainer the endowment was increased to over $ 3 million.

DEDICATION

It has been said that "the best, most beautiful, and most perfect way we have of expressing a sweet concord of mind to each other is by music."

It is likewise written that "the supreme art of the teacher is to awaken joy in creative expression and knowledge."

Our dedication is about music and a teacher. A teacher of music, to be specific.

The 1993 recipient of the yearbook dedication came to Lenoir-Rhyne in 1946. During her long years of service to this institution and its students, she has earned the reputation of an extraordinary teacher, who has lifted our spirits because of the music she has given us, and who, through her teaching and her life, has taught us about character, compassion, and perseverance.

This is an extraordinary person. If music is, indeed "a sweet striving to express character," she has patiently taught us about character. Her life has been lived in the service of this college, her students, and her God. She embodies the very principles upon which this college was built and she has spent her many years of teaching here in behalf of excellence and artistry. She has demanded much, but she has always given much.

We honor her not so much for longevity, but for the quality of her classroom, the quality of her music, and the quality of her soul.

If music "is love in search of a word," our hearts are filled with both music and love for her. With great pride, the 1993 HACAWA is dedicated to

Ralph Waldo Emersor

Oscar Hammerstein I

George Santayana

EDITOR'S PAGE

The truth shall liberate you. This literal translation of the motto of Lenoir-Rhyne College, found on the front cover of this year's HACAWA, is short, but it is powerful. "Truth" and "liberate" are huge words, which, in some way, give our stay at LR a purpose. We all come here to learn; to quench our thirsty minds. When we leave, we take a part of the place with us, and we all receive something different from our experiences.

I have come to realize that everything I do is a learning experience, and I have certainly learned a lot this year. I have done so much, seen so much, and made so many new friends. But in the sense of truth and liberation, I have learned to be true to myself, and to free myself from unnecessary troubles. My experiences have made me a better person.

I thank the community for allowing me to create this 85th edition of the HACAWA. I thank my friends for their support while I did so. and last but in no way least, I thank Dr. Ellis Boatmon, my advisor and my friend. Working with him has been one of those "learning experiences," and I would not trade it for the world. Never in my adult life have I learned so much from a single person I'm sure he knows how grateful I am, but I still want to use this little bit of paper to tell him so Thanks Doc.

Special thanks go to James Labrenz, director of photography. James' talent is very much in evidence throughout the HACAWA. We appreciate not only his pictures, but his sense of humor and his love for Lenoir-Rhyne.

Pictures of world events are by the Associated Press and used with its permission.

The typist for the HACAWA was Mrs. Dottie Crafton and we acknowledge her assistance with gratitude.

Many thanks to Angie Earnhardt, Anna Gribble Jenniffer Geurts, and Chris Stevenson.

Many thanks to the LR Business Office and Iris Moore in particular. Appreciation goes to David Williams of Creative Portraits (Raleigh) and to Bill Hall of Jostens, who was not only our field representative but our friend.

The HACAWA is the result of the vision and hard work of a few people. For over a year, these people have worked to create a publication that would reflect the 1992-1993 academic year. If we succeeded in capturing, in some small way, what this year has meant to you, then we will be rewarded enough for our efforts. This is your book It will always belong to you. Good luck,

CLOSING —

As we have sought the truth here, this has been our place and this was our year.

Here is a pictorial review of the year and the place. The pictures speak for themselves.

Time will never again bring this year back to us. It is preserved now only in our memories and in these photographs.

The 1993 HACAWA is the eighty-fifth volume of the Lenoir-Physic College yearbook. It is a birthday of sorts and we off so that yearbook with some recollection of HACAWA.

Lau wird in 1891. Lenoir College, by 1909, did not have a particle. President Robert Fritz asked for recommendations for a suitable name for such a book. Many suggestions were made, but President Fritz liked none of them and eventually chose a name he had originally proposed.

The name chosen was HACAWA. It was the first two letters of halls, campus, and walls. Thus the yearbook came to reflect, in its name, the full sweep of the college—its campus and its people.

Since 1909 and volume one, the HACAWA has presented the senior class as its primary focus. This continues to be the case. The yearbook is essentially about seniors. But over the years, the other three classes have been added, so that by volume 85, the HACAWA reflects the accomplishments of the entire student body.

The HACAWA has not always portrayed the world in which it is located. Campus events were the only ones presented. But gradually the yearbook came to reflect issues around Lenoir-Rhyne, both in the nation and in the world. During World War II, international events could not be ignored and beginning in the late 1960's and continui thereafter, there has been growing mention, in words at pictures, of happenings beyond the local campus. Todathe HACAWA presents a pictorial record of principal intenational and national events, so that the senior will alway remember the principal events that formed his final year college.

The emphasis of the HACAWA is pictorial. Many edition of the yearbook contain no color pictures, but with the i creasing demand for color photography, the HACAWA has greatly increased its number of color pictures.

The yearbook continues to be an expensive publication. Previously the HACAWA sold advertising for its pages by this has stopped. Today, the HACAWA receives $26.0 from each student fee and with that all costs are paid.

On many campuses a yearbook is disappearing. The victing of budget or student apathy. At Lenoir-Rhyne we continuwith a yearbook even though its future is not assured.

We have had 85 years of HACAWA. These books form permanent record of what we are about here at Lenoir Rhyne. These hundreds of pages present us as we were The good times we had. The accomplishments that we made as individuals or as a student body. From the HACAWA we live on as youth, our smiling faces an enduring record of the Bears of Lenoir-Rhyne College. Happy birthday, HACAWA.
